

MA 486-25 (Statistics), Dr. Chernov
Due Mon, Feb 10

Assignment #5

There are no mandatory homework for this week. You can try two bonus problems in chapter 9, problems 9.1.-4* and 9.6-2*. They are due next Monday, February 10.

The first midterm is next Monday, February 10. Note: I will be out of town next Monday and Wednesday, February 10–12. My graduate student Claire Lesort will proctor the test on Monday. Please turn your homework to her. You can come to her office, CH 471, during my regular office hour, 11–12 on Monday, with your questions (if you have any). Professor J. Buckley will teach the class on Wednesday, February 12.
